

“The Canvas”: Mapping The Web Of ‘isms’ and Building Our Capacity to Challenge Them

- School Counsellor’s Multicultural Self-Awareness: Building Multicultural Allies
(http://www.google.ca/url?sa=t&source=web&cd=11&ved=0CBQQFjAAOAO&url=http%3A%2F%2Fwww.emicrotraining.com%2Fresources%2FBuilding\_Multicultural\_Allies\_2005.ppt&ei=37d0TZKQPJG4sAPKounNCw&usg=AFQjCNEfrTbV\_xVR5B\_G1quoT\_CEsW6gbg)

This file contains the following information:

- Who and what is an ally?
- What is multiculturalism?
- Definition of Oppression/Prejudice
- Forms of Oppression
- Actions for an ally
- Active Witnessing Model
- 11 Types of Active Witnessing Responses

- Race Bridges for Schools (<http://www.racebridgesforschools.com/wp/>)

This webpage contains the ideas, tools, resources for teachers who want to explore diversity and race relations in the classroom.

- Change Agent Handbook

Designed for youth aged 15-20, this handbook provides useful information such as myths and facts about racism, questions to consider, and definitions. It can be used by youth to develop personal pride and accountability in creating positive change in their communities and to understand that as individuals, they have the ability to prevent racism.

http://www.embracebc.ca/local/embracebc/pdf/change\_agent\_handbook.pdf

- CitizenShift (<http://citizenshift.org/>)

This interactive community-driven Web site explores social and environmental issues through multimedia. CitizenShift was inspired by Challenge for Change — a groundbreaking NFB program in the 1960s that invited community participation in documentary production. Upload your own video, photos, articles and audio/podcasts.

- HUMAN RIGHTS EDUCATION RESOURCES FOR CHILDREN AND ADULTS
(<http://www.yhrc.yk.ca/pdfs/HumanRightsEducationResourcesForChildrenAndAdults.pdf>)

Following websites have access to print and other materials on human rights education appropriate for different ages. Some sites have curriculum materials geared to schools.